RULES FOR SAVINGS ACCOUNT

- Business relating to Savings Accounts will be conducted by the Bank during normal business hours.
- The minimum deposit required to open an account varies from branch to branch. This information could be obtained on request. There are no limitations on subsequent deposits.
- Accounts which carry less than the required minimum balance may be closed by the Bank.
- Cheques / Drafts which are not drawn favouring the Bank and money orders etc., will be accepted to the credit of Savings Accounts only at the discretion of the Bank.
- Interest will be calculated on the daily balance and credited monthly.
- Each Passbook Savings Account holder will be issued with a passbook, the safety of which will be the account holder's responsibility. The Bank must be notified without delay if the passbook is lost, stolen or misplaced.
- The amounts deposited and withdrawn will be recorded in the passbook by the Bank. Account holders should examine passbooks carefully before leaving the Bank and satisfy themselves that the entries made therein are correct. Any discrepancy must be notified to the Bank immediately.
- Passbook should be presented at least once in every six months to have all transactions recorded therein. Transactions beyond three years will not be available for recording in the passbook.
- The Bank reserves the right to mail, at its discretion, statement of transactions not recorded in the passbook.
- Withdrawals can be made by the account holder from the ATM or at the Bank counter upon the production of the passbook and a correctly completed withdrawal form.
- Any payments made by the Bank upon a correctly completed withdrawal form together with the passbook shall have the same effect as if made to the account holder personally.
- Drawings on Statement Savings account can be made by the account holder from the ATM or at the bank counter. Any payment made by the Bank upon production of the ATM card and /or a correctly completed withdrawal form shall have the same effect as if made to the account holder personally.
- The Bank reserves to itself the right to alter or add to these rules at any time.
